

Number of Registered Learners

What is the Prevention Learning Portal?

The Prevention Learning Portal (PLP) is an eLearning platform, aiming to enhance knowledge and skills in implementing evidence-based prevention practices, serving both newcomers and seasoned professionals. It offers free asynchronous courses, a comprehensive eLibrary, and up-to-date news and events related to prevention science.

275+

Credentialing Hours Earned from Educators and Licensed Social Workers

14 eCourses

13 eCourses in Development

68 eLibrary Resources

1012

Course Completion
Certificates Awarded

Enjoyment Rating

PLP learners are provided with a survey to complete on each course that they enroll in. On average, for those who completed these surveys, 94% of the learners selected that they thoroughly or mostly enjoyed the content and materials.

Completion Rating

PLP completion rating for our asynchronous courses

National average completion rating for asynchronous courses

Would Recommend

According to all survey responses, 93% of PLP learners said they would return and enroll in additional eCourses offered through the Prevention Learning Portal.

Our Most Popular eCourses

Upstream Prevention – How to Prevent Problems Before They Begin

Understanding Risk and Protective Factors and their Role in Prevention

Coordinating Youth-Driven Work in the Community Series

eCourses Launching Soon

Lifelong Learning: An Introductory Guide to Social Emotional Learning (SEL) for youth and adults

The Power of SEL: Equipping Staff to Support Student Well-Being

Coordinating Youth-Driven Work in the Community: Sustaining Your Youth Group (Part 3 of 3)

Testimonials

“Very informative, interactive, and a great introduction to prevention work”

Jami Burkett, Coordinator
Shippensburg Community Resource Coalition

“Engaging with EPIS’ Prevention Learning Portal has been a game-changer for YWCA Tri-County Area’s youth drug and alcohol prevention programming”

Kristie Piacine, Director
YWCA Tri-County Area

Our Partners

